Lloyd's of London is not an insurance company. Rather, it is a marketplace where insurance buyers and sellers come together. Lloyd's began as a coffee house in the 1600s. Ship captains, vessel owners, traders and others interested in shipping gathered at the coffee house to buy or sell what is now called ocean cargo insurance. These days, brokers and underwriters convene at the Lloyd's office building on Lime Street in East Central London.

Lloyd's of London, generally known simply as Lloyd's, is an insurance and reinsurance market located in London, United Kingdom. Unlike most of its competitors in the industry, it is not an insurance company; rather, Lloyd's is a corporate body governed by the Lloyd's Act 1871 and subsequent Acts of Parliament and operates as a partially-mutualised marketplace within which multiple financial backers, grouped in syndicates, come together to pool and spread risk. These underwriters, or "members", a
